

Photo needed

Walter Marron Jr.

KIA 28 April 1943

Army Private

Walter Marron Jr was killed in action on 28 April 1943, possibly in Tunisia. He served with F company, 135th Infantry Regiment, 34th Division. The 34th was in action in Tunisia specifically Kasserine Pass, Fondouk ol Okbi, Hill 609, and Chouigui. Hill 609 took place from 27 April to 1 May. He is buried in the Long Island National Cemetery.

According to the 1940 census, Walter Sr and Ruth Marron lived on Island Ave with child Walter and Walter Sr's father Robert Marron.

We have no additional information.

Can you help us find more information? Contact Post 108.