

Walter Yaworsky

MIA 14 November 1945

Navy Torpedoman's Mate 3rd Class

Walter Yaworski went Missing In Action on 14 November 1945. He was serving aboard the submarine SS294 Escolar. The Escolar made contact with an enemy ship on 30 September, but broke off communications with fellow subs. Escolar was heard from again on the 17th of October, reporting position and course to fellow subs. Escolar was due to return to Midway on 13 November but was not heard from after 17 October.

Walter is memorialized on the Walls of the Missing in Manilla American Cemetery.

Walter lived on Van Ness Ave according to the 1930 census with parents Alexander and Elise and siblings Joseph, Alexander and Edward. His draft card lists 88 Bradford as his residence.

Prior to service he worked at K. Kaufman Inc. in Newark.
